On the basis of defendant's sworn financial statement, the Court finds that the defendant is not qualified financially for the appointment of counsel. However in the interests of justice, the Court finds appoints counsel with this payback provision such that over a period of time, the defendant can afford to reimburse the United States for attorney's fees and expenses which will be paid to private counsel appointed to this case pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3006A, or for the expenses and the value of the services of the Federal Public Defender, similarly computed. Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED:

1. Pursuant to 18 U.S. C. §3006A, the Court appoints, as Counsel:

Scott Engelhard and Michelle Peterson
2. Counsel shall maintain time records in this case and, at its conclusion, file with this Court an accounting of services. Said accounting shall assess fees at $132 per hour, and shall include any and all expenses incurred.
3. Defendant shall pay to the Clerk of this Court $250 each month starting December
